

FISCAL NOTE

SJR 685

January 28, 2004

SUMMARY OF BILL:

- Expresses the General Assembly's unwavering support for an increase in funding to provide adequate financial assistance to all alternative schools and alternative education programs administered by the local education agencies (LEAs) of Tennessee.
- Urges and encourages the Governor to include such an earmarked appropriation within the administration's General Appropriations Act for FY04-05.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures - Not Significant

Estimate assumes:

- The resolution merely expresses the General Assembly's support for an increase in funding to all alternative schools and alternative education programs administered by the LEAs.
- The General Appropriation Act of FY04-05 submitted by the Governor does not include an earmarked appropriation for this purpose.
- Any costs to print and distribute this resolution to the Governor and the Commissioner of Finance and Administration are estimated to be not significant.
